

TRI-BETAC BILINGUAL/ESL TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Applying the RtI (Response to Intervention) Model for Literacy with English Language Learners

- ◆ Defining the RtI Model
- ◆ Applying RtI in Literacy for ELLs
- ◆ Appropriate Interventions for ELLs

Featuring

Dr. Julie Esparza-Brown, Director of the Bilingual Special Education Department at Portland State University

Author of A Cultural, Linguistic, and Ecological Framework for Response to Intervention with ELLs:

“Looking through the lens of culturally responsive practice, we consider how best to implement Response to Intervention (RtI) in a way that will provide equitable educational opportunity for students who are ELLs.”

&

Dr. Pedro Ruiz, Coordinator, NYS Office of Bilingual Education & Foreign Language Studies

Presenting an overview of NYS State initiatives

SPONSORED BY: THE MID-STATE, MID-WEST, WEST REGION BETACS, EQUITY ASSISTANCE CENTER REGION II AT TOURO COLLEGE
NYS EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

October 29, 2009—8:30 to 4:00

Cost: $30.00—includes Continental Breakfast & Lunch

Genesee Grand Hotel—1060 E Genesee St—Syracuse, NY 13210

www.geneseegrande.com

Teachers' Institute Registration—October 29, 2009

$30.00 check or money order must be enclosed.
(NO Purchase Orders)

Name _____	Title _____
Address _____	District _____
_____	Phone _____
_____	email _____

mail registration and fee to:

Mid-State BETAC
PO Box 4774
Syracuse, NY 13221

All registrations will be confirmed by email.

If you don't receive a confirmation, please contact
 Cindy Seeley at 315-433-2664

TOURO COLLEGE
Dedicated to your professional growth