

The GMAT® test

The GMAT test is a standardized test delivered in English that helps business schools assess the qualifications of applicants for advanced study in business and management. The GMAT test measures basic verbal, mathematical and analytical writing skills that you have developed in your education and work. Here you can find complete information about the GMAT. The GMAT is required by Touro Graduate School of Business for admission to the MBA and MS in Accounting programs.

GMAT Preparation is everything

Most GMAT test takers start preparing about 3 to 6 months before the actual test date. Think about how you can best prepare, given your discipline, motivation, and personal preference:

The Graduate Management Admission Council® provides free test preparation software and preparation materials to purchase as well as suggestions about how to prepare for the exam.

- Self study
- One-on-one tutoring
- Study groups
- Prep course

Get more GMAT study tips and Download FREE GMAT test prep materials here.

Where can I take the GMAT® exam?

The GMAT exam is delivered in testing centers around the world. Find a test center.

How does Touro Graduate School of Business obtain my GMAT® score?

Test results are reported directly to GSB by the GMAT test center. Test results must be reported in advance of the program's application deadline. Be sure to select the appropriate code when reporting your test score to assure proper delivery.

- New York MN8-Z3-04
- Berlin MN8-Z3-63
- Moscow MN8-Z3-48