

The TOEFL® English test

English Language Proficiency Test. Students whose native language is not English, or who attended an undergraduate program where English was not the language of instruction, are required to take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) examination. Test results must be reported in advance of the program's application deadline.

The TOEFL® English Test is the most widely accepted English language test in the world. Here you can find test prep material to improve your writing in English and practice TOEFL online.

Touro Graduate School of Business will consider students who have achieved an overall TOEFL® Internet-based Test (iBT) score of 80 or better, and minimum competency scores as follows: reading, 21; listening, 18; speaking, 22; and writing, 19.

How does Touro Graduate School of Business obtain my TOEFL® score?

Test results are reported directly to GSB by the TOEFL test center. Test results must be reported in advance of the program's application deadline. Be sure to select the appropriate code when reporting your test score to assure proper delivery.

- New York 6737
- Berlin 6718
- Moscow 6735

IELTS is the International English Language Testing System which tests English proficiency across the globe.

Touro Graduate School of Business will consider students who have achieved an overall IELTS band score of 6.5 or better.

How does Touro Graduate School of Business obtain my IELTS® score?

IELTS issue test scores directly to test-takers. Please enclose your test report form in the application package.