Touro College President and CEO, Dr. Alan Kadish, Teaches Lesson on the Heart to Third Graders from Harlem’s P.S. 197 - Receives “Scrub” from Children

third graders were each dressed in scrubs and given their own stethoscopes and taught how to use them by Dr. Kadish and Touro's physician assistant students. The event was part of an initiative called Project Aspire, run through the Children Health Education Foundation of Touro College, which operates a program to increase youth awareness about healthy life choices and the importance of medical practitioners in today's world. Throughout the lesson the students repeated the program motto, "Yes, I Can!"

*Touro is a system of Jewish-sponsored non-profit institutions of higher and professional education. Touro College was chartered in 1970 primarily to enrich the Jewish heritage, and to serve the larger American community. Approximately 19,000 students are currently enrolled in its various schools and divisions. Touro College has branch campuses, locations and instructional sites in the New York area, as well as branch campuses and programs in Berlin, Jerusalem, Moscow, Paris, and Florida. Touro University California and its Nevada branch campus, as well as Touro College Los Angeles and Touro University Worldwide, are separately accredited institutions within the Touro College and University System.
