DR. ALAN KADISH, PRESIDENT AND CEO OF TOURO COLLEGE/TOURO UNIVERSITY, HONORED BY ADVANCEMENT FOR COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY AND TECHNOLOGY AT LONG ISLAND BUSINESS LEADERSHIP LUNCHEON

On December 3, 2010, Dr. Alan Kadish, President and CEO of Touro College/Touro University, was honored by the Advancement for Commerce and Industry and Technology (ACIT) at the organization's Long Island Annual Business Leadership luncheon. The luncheon was organized to recognize Long Island business and communal leaders. Dr. Kadish received the “Commitment to Excellence and Leadership Award” in the field of higher education. The ACIT, which is active on Long Island, recognizes the importance and contribution of Touro to the community through its two schools located on Long Island - the Touro College School of Health Sciences in Bayshore and its Jacob D. Fuchsburg Law Center in Central Islip, New York. Pictured, from left, are: Dr. Louis Primavera, dean of the Touro College School of Health Sciences; Dr. Kadish; and Douglas C. Manditch, Chairman and CEO of Empire National Bank and a past president and chairman of ACIT. Mr. Manditch received the organization’s “Philanthropic Award.”
