FOR RELEASE

DR. ALAN KADISH, PRESIDENT and CEO OF TOURO COLLEGE, WELCOMES DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER RABBI STEVEN WEIL, EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF ORTHODOX UNION

Touro is a system of Jewish-sponsored non-profit institutions of higher and professional education. Touro College was established in 1971 primarily to enrich the Jewish heritage, and to serve the larger American community. More than 18,000 students are currently enrolled in its various schools and divisions. Touro College has branch campuses, locations and instructional sites in the New York area, as well as branch campuses and programs in Berlin, Jerusalem, Moscow, Paris, and Florida. Touro University California and its Nevada branch campus, as well as Touro College Los Angeles, are separately accredited institutions governed in common by the same Board of Trustees as Touro College.
