

Team Touro Walks in American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Event

For the second consecutive year, students, staff and faculty from Touro College participated in the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event, held on Sunday, October 17th in Central Park. Pictured are 17 of the members of "Team Touro" who walked to raise money for the event. Funds raised by the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer are used to help people stay well and get well from breast cancer, find cures, and empower individuals to fight back.

Touro is a system of Jewish-sponsored non-profit institutions of higher and professional education. Touro College was established in 1971 primarily to enrich the Jewish heritage, and to serve the larger American community. More than 18,000 students are currently enrolled in its various schools and divisions. Touro College has branch campuses, locations and instructional sites in the New York area, as well as branch campuses and programs in Berlin, Jerusalem, Moscow, Paris, and Florida. Touro University California and its Nevada branch campus, as well as Touro College Los Angeles, are separately accredited institutions governed in common by the same Board of Trustees as Touro College.
