Touro Graduates Third Class

The third annual Touro College Los Angeles (TCLA) graduation took place June 21 at the home of Rudy and dean Esther Lowy.

Dean Lowy handed diplomas to 22 students, the largest graduating class in TCLA's history.

Speeches were delivered by graduate Roy Hadavi and CEO/senior provost Bernard Luskin. Rabbi Antony Gordon delivered the invocation, and words of Torah were shared by Rabbi Sholom Tendler.

TCLA was founded in 2005 with the intention of perpetuating Jewish values, heritage and traditions, while serving the community with social justice.
