Admission Decisions: Applications, once completed, are evaluated on a rolling basis until all spaces in the program have been filled. Any supporting documents not submitted with the application should follow in a timely fashion.

- Completed application for admission.
- Placement/Ability to Benefit Exam: Applicants may be required to take placement exams in English and Math. These exams are used to determine 'ability to benefit' in the event that the applicant has not completed high school, has attended or graduated from high school in a foreign country, or has not taken or passed the GED.
- Official transcripts of all high school and college work: We highly recommend that you submit transcripts. They should be sent directly to the Office of Admissions by the issuing school. Transcripts issued to the students are not considered official documents. Even if the student does not intend or expect to transfer college credit, he/she should have all transcripts sent to Touro College. All international students must provide proof of secondary school completion. All foreign documents must be accompanied by an official English translation.
- Standardized test scores: All candidates for admission who have taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or American College Testing Program (ACT) should submit their scores to the Office of Admissions. Touro College's score report numbers are 2902 for the SAT and 2961 for the ACT. Although standardized test scores are not required for the New York School of Career and Applied Studies, students interested in upper division health science programs will be expected to have taken one of these exams.
- TOEFL exam results: All students whose native language is not English that have taken the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) should make arrangements to submit their scores to Touro. Touro College's score report number is 2902.
- An interview is recommended for all applicants. Contact Admissions for an appointment.
- Please attach any additional information you feel would be relevant in considering your application for admission. Please complete all information as requested. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
