

TOURO COLLEGE – SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES
DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY PROGRAM

DIRECTOR POSITION

Touro College in NY is seeking a Director for its growing Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) Program. Touro College offers the DPT Program on two separate campuses in Bay Shore on Long Island and 23rd Street in Manhattan, for which the Director is responsible. The DPT program is known for the clinical excellence of our core faculty, 75% of who are board certified clinical specialists.

Qualifications include PT licensure or eligibility in NY State, a terminal doctoral degree, and administrative and teaching experience. Responsibilities of this position include educational leadership, administrative teaching, scholarship and university/community service. On-campus time is structured to allow independent practice if desired. Academic rank and salary are commensurate with applicant experience and qualifications.

Touro College is a private institution with a full complement of allied health programs on locations in Manhattan and Long Island. The Physical Therapy Department offers DPT and post-professional DPT degree programs. Touro College graduated it first DPT class in 2004. More information about the Institution and programs can be found on <http://www.touro.edu/shs>

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Please submit a letter of interest and curricula vita to:

Francis Corio, PT, PhD, OCS
Search Committee Chair
Touro College
School of Health Sciences
Physical Therapy Department
1700 Union Boulevard
Bay Shore, NY 11706
631 665-1600 x 277, franceco@touro.edu